

Shed some light on Census night

9 August 2011

The Census provides a critical indicator of homelessness in Australia and is used to form policy, allocate funding and develop services in your community. Wherever you are on Census night make sure you are included in the Census by filling in a paper form or using eCensus online.

The information you give is kept private and is not shared with anyone else. For more information call 1300 338 776 or visit www.abs.gov.au/census.
